Are you ready for an exciting career that could help improve millions of lives around the world?

The National Eye Institute (NEI), National Institutes of Health (NIH) is striving to become the employer of choice for highly qualified individuals looking for an environment that fosters innovation, rewards performance and creativity, and provides challenge on a routine basis.

These positions are available in the Division of Intramural Research (DIR) of the National Eye Institute. The DIR's primary function is to plan and conduct laboratory and clinical research to advance scientific knowledge of how the visual system functions in both health and disease.

The Administrative Laboratory Manager is responsible for organizing, coordinating, conducting, and managing the administrative components of the laboratories' operations. These positions are subject to a background investigation.

The NEI offers competitive salaries, commensurate with experience and accomplishments, and a comprehensive benefits package. Job opportunities are located in Bethesda, MD.

The NEI is committed to maintaining its stature as a premier research institution. We invite you to explore our institute and programs at: <http://www.nei.nih.gov/>.

Join the fight for global health and use your individual talents to support our mission. For additional information on these positions and for instructions on submitting your application, please visit: <http://www.usajobs.gov> and view vacancies:
